

Life Science at Edinburgh Napier

Your Partner for Research

- Contract Research
- Knowledge Exchange
- Consultancy
- Innovation Vouchers
- Jointly Funded Research
- Access to Specialist Equipment

Your Partner for Education

- Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF) Credit Rating your In-House Training
- Hosting, Design and Delivery of Specialist Training
- Public and Community Engagement
- Educating Tomorrow's Life Scientists: Employer Panel, Work Shadowing, Networking, Mentoring

✉ rio@napier.ac.uk

🐦 @EdNapLifeSci

Examples of recent/current projects with industry include:

- Consultancy on microbial spoilage and contaminant issues for a multinational food ingredients company
- Development and implementation of rapid detection systems for Salmonella and Listeria in food for an SME focussed on food and environmental testing
- Development of protocols for environmental monitoring and biocide efficiency on a variety of surfaces in a hospital setting
- Assessment of novel methods for wound treatment
- Cheese making practices and implications for starter culture selection. Fine Cheesemakers of Scotland (a network of 32 cheesemakers); Funder: Interface Food and Drink
- Vaccine development against endemic livestock pathogens
- Industry-sponsored fees for PhD entitled "Development of evidence-based techniques to assess the use and function of structures associated with Eurasian otters"
- Training event with Findlay Ecology Services and Royal Zoological Society of Scotland on "An evidence-based approach to camera-trapping"
- Medical Research Scotland – funded PhD studentship with PointOne Clinic entitled "Investigating the impact of spinal mobilisation therapy and movement patterns in multiple sclerosis patients"
- Design and delivery of a Skills Development Scotland- funded Lab Skills courses for unemployed Life Sciences graduates